

VOL. XIII.

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY, MARCH 23, 1887.

NO. 12.

"I COME, THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK."

RETRIBUTION.

BY "THE DUCKER."

CHAPTER XVI.

A sweeping law; broad heron; far away as the eye can see a gleaming swamp. Behind the lake a back ground of giant firs that but out the sky

in that direction, and tower into brilliant relief the white elms that stand in the forest on the high ground.

General Masson, having lost his paw, flings his jacket to the left, and thrusts himself prone at the foot of a deciduous tree.

"Pretty place, eh," says he, "Soothing to the nerves after the town fever?"

Then looking at her and making a tremendous effort of his breathing, that almost borders upon insouciance, he says gently:

"Tired?"

She breathes up with an effort and looks at him in her latest fashion.

Her thoughts are tangled—her mind perturbed. She is far from the town here, but she is not. She is in the middle of a great deal of trouble, and she is not in the best of health. She is not in the best of health. She is not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

not in the best of health. She is

"A woman's promise—bitter broken."

"I have a promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

woman's promise, that I will be a

Mason and Dixon line was the dividing line between the free and the slave

States. This is not the case. The line was a slave State, and it lies both north and south of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the line. The common slave line was at latitude 36° 30'

and north of the

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23.

Beaver Dam Rail Road Time Table.

Lv. for Memphis & South, 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
Lv. for Louisville & East, 1:45 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

NEWS.

Try William's Bros. extra fine flour.

Martin makes wedding rings a specialty.

Go to J. R. Pollock & Co. for choice flour and meal.

The boom at Small's was immense during last week.

Goods must go, take them at your own price, at Small's.

Last Monday the 21st, was the old resident's first day of spring.

Martin's for apocryphal suit theory, and prices to suit the pocket.

The sun crossed the vernal equinox Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

One of the most attractive signs can be seen at Small's Trade Palace.

Rev. R. D. Barnett began a series of meetings at Central last Sunday.

A light fall of snow fell from the heavens all last Sunday afternoon.

We believe in close profits and plenty of them. Small's Trade Palace.

Martin's is the place to get a fine watch for a small amount of money.

Martin's for all kinds of jewelry, at prices so low it will make you laugh.

It will be to your interest to call on us if you need anything in our line.

J. R. Pollock & Co.

Capt. R. E. Hill made an art and special last Saturday at Small's distribution.

For the very best flour and meal, at prices that defy competition, call on us in their store.

We deal exclusively in extras—the best and cheapest. Small's Trade Palace.

The National Hotel, at Livermore, burned Sunday night at eleven o'clock. Fully insured.

Everybody was perfectly satisfied at Small's drawing except those who did not have tickets.

Joe Davis's 10-year-old orphan boy, got the hands of William's Bros. and Small's gift distribution.

W. G. Griffin & Bros. have purchased two beautiful top lamp chandeliers for use in their store.

William's Bros. will sell you a glow cheaper (quality considered) than you can buy elsewhere.

William's Bros. can sell you almost anything you want from a horse and saddle to a thorough machine.

The blue birds and martins, the first harbingers of spring were clearing the air hereabouts, last Monday.

Our associate editor is under lasting obligations to Uncle Billy Foster for substantial favors shown him.

The recent frosts have damaged the budding fruit trees much that a fruit crop is no longer to be expected.

The Miner's National Entertainment several young couples at their residence last Saturday night, in a social party.

Here a little, there a little. We save you something on the most trifling purchases. Small's Trade Palace.

For the very best paints, oils and varnishes at rock bottom prices, go to Z. Wayne Griffin & Bros., Hartford, Kentucky.

Rev. J. W. Brown will preach at New Hope church next 30 Sunday at 11 o'clock and Saturday night preceding at early conclusion.

We have a complete line of fishing tackle. Don't fail to call and examine our stock. No trouble to show our goods. WILLIAMS BROS., Hartford.

Mr. J. W. Carter, of Concord neighborhood, added one last week quite a quantity in the way of an unusually large hen's egg to our already large list of curiosities.

Mr. Simpson Barnett, formerly of Ohio county, has returned to his home, Mrs. Smith, of the Pleasant Hill neighborhood, McLean county, where he will raise a crop this year.

Mr. John P. Foster, one of Ohio county's enterprising farmers, has a lamb only three weeks old, which weighs 27 pounds. He also has tobacco plants with four leaves. John is heard to boast.

We defy competition, no when you want drugs, chemicals, school books, wall paper, standard patent medicines, oils and varnishes, you will do well to call on us.

Z. WAYNE GRIFPIN & BROS., Hartford, Ky.

The revival meeting conducted at Graham by Rev. L. E. Campbell, is we understand awakening considerable interest on the subject of religion. The singing has been particularly meritorious. Several have professed faith in Christ and many more are anxiously seeking the way of eternal life.

John Jenkins, of color, was brought from Louisville, Ky., by policeman Frank Ferry last Sunday and placed in jail. Jenkins is accused of having stolen $120 worth of goods from a man by the name of Jett, of Henderson, Mo. Another man elected to Frank-ford should the charge be sustained.

John P. Johnson, of near Sulphur Springs, was brought before his Honor, Frank Ferry last Sunday, charged with larceny. A jury was summoned, and after hearing the evidence sustained the charge, and Mr. Johnson was sent to the Highville jail.

This is the second time he has been sent to the jail. He was sentenced about one year ago. He was there about one month when he was released and thought to be entirely well, but a short time since, he lost his mind again.

Mr. A. C. Smith, of Pleasant Hill neighborhood, while passing over the bridge, was severely hurt by a falling wheel, becoming unmanageable, two wheels passed over his head cutting two feet deep in his back, and he was brought to the hospital, where he is now lying, for a time, he was brought to bed, but a vigorous application of restoratives brought him back to life, he is now able to be about, but complaining of being very sore.

The time for gardening and spring cleaning has arrived. Would it not be well for our trustees to have the grounds cleaned and made so that water will stand in pools along the side walks. Cleanliness conducive to good health. The marsh between Tracy's and Banger's needs draining to prevent the formation of poisonous and ill-smelling gases that result from decaying vegetation in stagnant water.

Mrs. W. F. Gregory, previously tendered her Sunday School class a supper last Saturday night, which was very enjoyable and highly appreciated. Her class is composed entirely of young men and under the kind instruction of Mr. Gregory, they have learned many lessons of gallantry and courteousness, coupled with her predominate aim to instruct in the good light of religious learning. This supper, such an appropriate token of encouragement and love, will ever be remembered in the hearts of Mrs. Gregory's appreciative scholars.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the candy-pulling last Friday night for a small amount of money.

Martin's for all kinds of jewelry, at prices so low it will make you laugh.

It will be to your interest to call on us if you need anything in our line.

J. R. Pollock & Co.

Capt. R. E. Hill made an art and special last Saturday at Small's distribution.

For the very best flour and meal, at prices that defy competition, call on us in their store.

We deal exclusively in extras—the best and cheapest. Small's Trade Palace.

The National Hotel, at Livermore, burned Sunday night at eleven o'clock. Fully insured.

Everybody was perfectly satisfied at Small's drawing except those who did not have tickets.

Joe Davis's 10-year-old orphan boy, got the hands of William's Bros. and Small's gift distribution.

W. G. Griffin & Bros. have purchased two beautiful top lamp chandeliers for use in their store.

William's Bros. will sell you a glow cheaper (quality considered) than you can buy elsewhere.

William's Bros. can sell you almost anything you want from a horse and saddle to a thorough machine.

The blue birds and martins, the first harbingers of spring were clearing the air hereabouts, last Monday.

Our associate editor is under lasting obligations to Uncle Billy Foster for substantial favors shown him.

The recent frosts have damaged the budding fruit trees much that a fruit crop is no longer to be expected.

The Miner's National Entertainment several young couples at their residence last Saturday night, in a social party.

Here a little, there a little. We save you something on the most trifling purchases. Small's Trade Palace.

For the very best paints, oils and varnishes at rock bottom prices, go to Z. Wayne Griffin & Bros., Hartford, Kentucky.

Rev. J. W. Brown will preach at New Hope church next 30 Sunday at 11 o'clock and Saturday night preceding at early conclusion.

We have a complete line of fishing tackle. Don't fail to call and examine our stock. No trouble to show our goods. WILLIAMS BROS., Hartford.

Mr. J. W. Carter, of Concord neighborhood, added one last week quite a quantity in the way of an unusually large hen's egg to our already large list of curiosities.

Mr. Simpson Barnett, formerly of Ohio county, has returned to his home, Mrs. Smith, of the Pleasant Hill neighborhood, McLean county, where he will raise a crop this year.

Mr. John P. Foster, one of Ohio county's enterprising farmers, has a lamb only three weeks old, which weighs 27 pounds. He also has tobacco plants with four leaves. John is heard to boast.

We defy competition, no when you want drugs, chemicals, school books, wall paper, standard patent medicines, oils and varnishes, you will do well to call on us.

Z. WAYNE GRIFPIN & BROS., Hartford, Ky.

The revival meeting conducted at Graham by Rev. L. E. Campbell, is we understand awakening considerable interest on the subject of religion. The singing has been particularly meritorious. Several have professed faith in Christ and many more are anxiously seeking the way of eternal life.

John Jenkins, of color, was brought from Louisville, Ky., by policeman Frank Ferry last Sunday and placed in jail. Jenkins is accused of having stolen $120 worth of goods from a man by the name of Jett, of Henderson, Mo. Another man elected to Frank-ford should the charge be sustained.

John P. Johnson, of near Sulphur Springs, was brought before his Honor, Frank Ferry last Sunday, charged with larceny. A jury was summoned, and after hearing the evidence sustained the charge, and Mr. Johnson was sent to the Highville jail.

This is the second time he has been sent to the jail. He was sentenced about one year ago. He was there about one month when he was released and thought to be entirely well, but a short time since, he lost his mind again.

PERSONAL.

Persons calling for the address of friends and relatives under this head will receive a favor by enclosing a stamp.

T. M. Smith returned from Louisville Friday.

Mr. L. B. Bann was in the city Monday.

Mr. Thos. Bell, of Buford, was in the city Monday.

Mr. James Rowe attended the drawing Saturday.

Hon. H. D. McHenry went to Louisville Monday.

Mr. Frank Kelly, of Fordville, was in town Monday.

T. H. Hines, of Sulphur Springs, was in town Monday.

Senator Sam E. Hill returned from Louisville Friday.

Judge Ben Newton, of Buford, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Z. W. Shultz, of Rockport, was in Hartford Monday.

George C. Griswold, of Central City, was in town Sunday.

Mr. F. M. Hays, of Selet, Ky., was in Hartford Monday.

Mr. Lonnie Barnard, of Corvado, came to the city Monday.

Mr. J. W. Mowley, of near Whiteville, was in town Monday.

Mr. James Gentry, of near Prentiss, Ky., was in the city Monday.

Mr. W. J. McIntyre, of near Corvado, was in town Monday.

Dr. F. L. Smith, of Paradise, Ky., was in town at the Commercial Hotel, last week.

Mr. Dave Johnson, of Pleasant Ridge, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Hon. H. B. Kinsolving, Hartford, is the Alexander's (Courier Journal).

J. R. Casbeer and J. W. Holey will visit relatives near Riddle's Friday next.

David Morton, proprietor of the Sulphur Springs Hotel, was in Hartford Saturday.

Alvin Rowe, the HERALD's efficient assistant, was in Hartford, in the afternoon, last week.

D. T. Barnes and J. T. Hite contemplate a trip to Masonville the last of next week.

Mr. R. T. Barrett, of Owensboro, of Wesley Branch, of Whitesville, was in town last Thursday.

Miss Rebecca Dillman, of Hopkinsville, is the sister of Mrs. J. S. Vaughn, of this place.

Prof. W. B. Hayward, and wife, of Sulphur Springs, were in town Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Moore.

Mr. John Miller, and wife, of McHenry, Ky., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Davis, of this place.

Prof. R. B. Wilson and Mrs. M. Shultz stopped over a few hours Saturday on their way to the Point.

F. E. Spalding, who has been attending school here the past winter left for his home in Louisville yesterday.

Hon. S. E. Hill, of Ohio county, candidate for Lieut. Governor, was in the city this week (Frankfort Capital).

Miss Minnie Benbow and Viola Perry, of Sulphur Springs, matriculated as pupils in Hartford College Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Nichols and two little daughters, of Calhoun, Ky., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, of this place.

Mr. Eugene Miller, one of Sacramento's pleasant gentlemen, was in Hartford last Friday and Saturday, visiting friends.

Judge John O'Flaherty and Mr. R. M. Miller left Sunday morning for Louisville and pleasure trip to McLean county.

Mr. Charlie Felix, after several weeks' stay in Hartford, returned to his home in McLean county, last week.

Logan G. Barnard, who has been long absent from Calhoun, Ky., is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. N. L. Pritchett, merchant tailor, who has been in town at the Hotel, is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. C. H. Hines, of White Plains, has returned to his home in McLean county, after a visit to relatives near Red Oak, Grayson county, Ky., during last week.

Mr. Luther Duke, a former resident of this county, but now of Bates, Mo., was circulating among friends in Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Central City, and Clara Patterson, of Rockport, came up to Hartford, Saturday, and were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Hardwick.

Misses Dorra and Lela Crawford, of Millwood, will attend the entertainment at the College Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Post, traveling salesman, for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

The firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient gentleman for this season.

The following are the arrival at the Hartford House for the week ending March 23rd, 1887.

John B. Chambliss, of Fordville, D. Bell, H. W. Hines, J. D. Hines, of near Whiteville, W. J. McIntyre, of near Corvado, J. R. Casbeer, of near Riddle's, J. W. Holey, of near Riddle's, J. S. Vaughn, of this place.

Mr. J. M. Nichols, of Calhoun, Ky., and two little daughters, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, of this place.

Mr. Eugene Miller, one of Sacramento's pleasant gentlemen, was in Hartford last Friday and Saturday, visiting friends.

Judge John O'Flaherty and Mr. R. M. Miller left Sunday morning for Louisville and pleasure trip to McLean county.

Mr. Charlie Felix, after several weeks' stay in Hartford, returned to his home in McLean county, last week.

Logan G. Barnard, who has been long absent from Calhoun, Ky., is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. N. L. Pritchett, merchant tailor, who has been in town at the Hotel, is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. C. H. Hines, of White Plains, has returned to his home in McLean county, after a visit to relatives near Red Oak, Grayson county, Ky., during last week.

Mr. Luther Duke, a former resident of this county, but now of Bates, Mo., was circulating among friends in Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Central City, and Clara Patterson, of Rockport, came up to Hartford, Saturday, and were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Hardwick.

Misses Dorra and Lela Crawford, of Millwood, will attend the entertainment at the College Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Post, traveling salesman, for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

The firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient gentleman for this season.

The following are the arrival at the Hartford House for the week ending March 23rd, 1887.

John B. Chambliss, of Fordville, D. Bell, H. W. Hines, J. D. Hines, of near Whiteville, W. J. McIntyre, of near Corvado, J. R. Casbeer, of near Riddle's, J. W. Holey, of near Riddle's, J. S. Vaughn, of this place.

Mr. J. M. Nichols, of Calhoun, Ky., and two little daughters, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, of this place.

Mr. Eugene Miller, one of Sacramento's pleasant gentlemen, was in Hartford last Friday and Saturday, visiting friends.

Judge John O'Flaherty and Mr. R. M. Miller left Sunday morning for Louisville and pleasure trip to McLean county.

Mr. Charlie Felix, after several weeks' stay in Hartford, returned to his home in McLean county, last week.

Logan G. Barnard, who has been long absent from Calhoun, Ky., is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. N. L. Pritchett, merchant tailor, who has been in town at the Hotel, is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. C. H. Hines, of White Plains, has returned to his home in McLean county, after a visit to relatives near Red Oak, Grayson county, Ky., during last week.

Mr. Luther Duke, a former resident of this county, but now of Bates, Mo., was circulating among friends in Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Central City, and Clara Patterson, of Rockport, came up to Hartford, Saturday, and were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Hardwick.

Misses Dorra and Lela Crawford, of Millwood, will attend the entertainment at the College Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Post, traveling salesman, for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

The firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient gentleman for this season.

The following are the arrival at the Hartford House for the week ending March 23rd, 1887.

John B. Chambliss, of Fordville, D. Bell, H. W. Hines, J. D. Hines, of near Whiteville, W. J. McIntyre, of near Corvado, J. R. Casbeer, of near Riddle's, J. W. Holey, of near Riddle's, J. S. Vaughn, of this place.

Mr. J. M. Nichols, of Calhoun, Ky., and two little daughters, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, of this place.

Mr. Eugene Miller, one of Sacramento's pleasant gentlemen, was in Hartford last Friday and Saturday, visiting friends.

Judge John O'Flaherty and Mr. R. M. Miller left Sunday morning for Louisville and pleasure trip to McLean county.

Mr. Charlie Felix, after several weeks' stay in Hartford, returned to his home in McLean county, last week.

Logan G. Barnard, who has been long absent from Calhoun, Ky., is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. N. L. Pritchett, merchant tailor, who has been in town at the Hotel, is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. C. H. Hines, of White Plains, has returned to his home in McLean county, after a visit to relatives near Red Oak, Grayson county, Ky., during last week.

Mr. Luther Duke, a former resident of this county, but now of Bates, Mo., was circulating among friends in Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Central City, and Clara Patterson, of Rockport, came up to Hartford, Saturday, and were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Hardwick.

Misses Dorra and Lela Crawford, of Millwood, will attend the entertainment at the College Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Post, traveling salesman, for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

The firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient gentleman for this season.

The following are the arrival at the Hartford House for the week ending March 23rd, 1887.

John B. Chambliss, of Fordville, D. Bell, H. W. Hines, J. D. Hines, of near Whiteville, W. J. McIntyre, of near Corvado, J. R. Casbeer, of near Riddle's, J. W. Holey, of near Riddle's, J. S. Vaughn, of this place.

Mr. J. M. Nichols, of Calhoun, Ky., and two little daughters, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, of this place.

Mr. Eugene Miller, one of Sacramento's pleasant gentlemen, was in Hartford last Friday and Saturday, visiting friends.

Judge John O'Flaherty and Mr. R. M. Miller left Sunday morning for Louisville and pleasure trip to McLean county.

Mr. Charlie Felix, after several weeks' stay in Hartford, returned to his home in McLean county, last week.

Logan G. Barnard, who has been long absent from Calhoun, Ky., is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. N. L. Pritchett, merchant tailor, who has been in town at the Hotel, is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. C. H. Hines, of White Plains, has returned to his home in McLean county, after a visit to relatives near Red Oak, Grayson county, Ky., during last week.

Mr. Luther Duke, a former resident of this county, but now of Bates, Mo., was circulating among friends in Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Central City, and Clara Patterson, of Rockport, came up to Hartford, Saturday, and were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Hardwick.

Misses Dorra and Lela Crawford, of Millwood, will attend the entertainment at the College Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Post, traveling salesman, for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

The firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient gentleman for this season.

The following are the arrival at the Hartford House for the week ending March 23rd, 1887.

John B. Chambliss, of Fordville, D. Bell, H. W. Hines, J. D. Hines, of near Whiteville, W. J. McIntyre, of near Corvado, J. R. Casbeer, of near Riddle's, J. W. Holey, of near Riddle's, J. S. Vaughn, of this place.

Mr. J. M. Nichols, of Calhoun, Ky., and two little daughters, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, of this place.

Mr. Eugene Miller, one of Sacramento's pleasant gentlemen, was in Hartford last Friday and Saturday, visiting friends.

Judge John O'Flaherty and Mr. R. M. Miller left Sunday morning for Louisville and pleasure trip to McLean county.

Mr. Charlie Felix, after several weeks' stay in Hartford, returned to his home in McLean county, last week.

Logan G. Barnard, who has been long absent from Calhoun, Ky., is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. N. L. Pritchett, merchant tailor, who has been in town at the Hotel, is now in the city, on his way to his home in McLean county.

Mr. C. H. Hines, of White Plains, has returned to his home in McLean county, after a visit to relatives near Red Oak, Grayson county, Ky., during last week.

Mr. Luther Duke, a former resident of this county, but now of Bates, Mo., was circulating among friends in Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Central City, and Clara Patterson, of Rockport, came up to Hartford, Saturday, and were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Hardwick.

Misses Dorra and Lela Crawford, of Millwood, will attend the entertainment at the College Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Post, traveling salesman, for J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

The firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient gentleman for this season.

The following are the arrival at the Hartford House for the week ending March 23rd, 1887.

John B. Chambliss, of Fordville, D. Bell, H. W. Hines, J. D. Hines, of near Whiteville, W. J. McIntyre, of near Cor
